

108,729,506 adults age 50+ in US

Based on 2014 Census projections. Population is estimated to grow by another 10 million by 2020.

Percentage of those in the 50+ cohort who are ages 50-59 60-69 70+

Diversity Among Older Adults

The Pacific region (CA, WA, OR) is the most diverse region for adults over 50:

- 17.5% of adults age 50+ there are Hispanic/Latino
- 13.3% are Asian/Pacific Islander
- 4.7% are Black/African American

WORK

51.6% or 54,039,000 adults 50+ are not in the labor force²

44.8% adults age 50 or over are employed²

6% of workers are self-employed²

5.1% is the unemployment rate for workers 50+²

3% are small business owners¹

5% of adults ages 50-59 work from home most days¹

DEMOGRAPHICS

This is the first of a six-part series focusing on Americans age 50 and older and how they live their lives. Additional information and more fact sheets can be found on our website at aarp.org/50plusfacts.

2%: # of the 50+ who go back to school¹

2.35

Average number of persons in household

36% own dogs¹

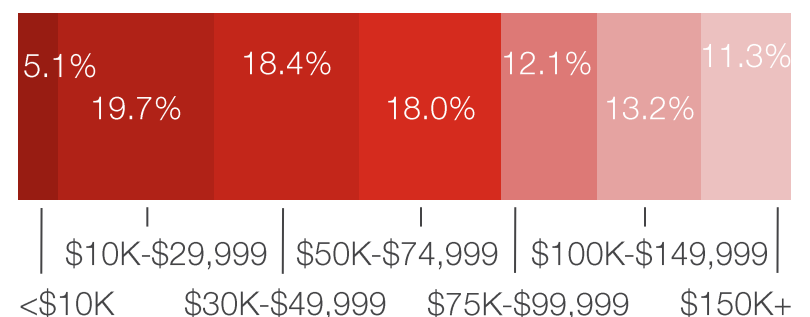

24% own cats

7% own other pet

Household Income

Median household income for adults 50+ is $56,710

Sources: US Census 2012 National Population Projections; 2012 American Community Survey PUMS; ¹Scarborough USA+ 2013 Release 1 Total (Feb 2012 - Mar 2013); ²Labor Force Statistics from Current Population Survey, 2013, Not seasonally adjusted.

Created by: Gretchen Anderson, AARP Research, ganderson@aarp.org