You have to take care of yourself if you're going to be a good provider. If you're facing challenges that seem overwhelming, you need an opportunity to regroup, so you can go back to being a source of help and hope for family and friends.

AARP Foundation is here for everyone, 50 years of age or older, who is struggling with problems of hunger, isolation, income or housing. In addition, we are working side by side with trusted organizations in your community and nationwide to help you take control, move forward, and feel like a good provider again.

Program guidelines, telephone numbers, and websites are subject to change. For the most up-to-date information in your state, log on to AARP Foundation Benefits QuickLINK at: aarp.org/quicklink.

CASH INCOME

Social Security

Benefit: Social Security offers you a cash benefit based on your work history and the amount you paid into Social Security. The cash benefit helps you meet your needs due to loss of income as a result of retirement, disability, or death. You and your dependents or surviving spouse can receive the Social Security benefit. The benefit amount you will get depends on the earning records for the person who worked.

Who can apply: To get Social Security retirement benefits, you must have met the work requirements and paid into the Social Security system. You can get the Social Security
Supplemental Security Income (SSI)

Benefit: SSI provides a cash benefit to you every month to make sure you have a minimum level of income so that you can pay for basic needs such as: food, clothing, and shelter.

Who can apply: You may get help from this program if you are 65 years of age or older, blind, or have a disability. In addition, you must have limited income and resources. Some resources such as your home, car, and certain portions of life insurance and burial accounts may not be counted when determining whether you meet the program guidelines.

How to apply: You must make an appointment at your local Social Security office to apply. You can find your local Social Security office by calling: 1-800-772-1213 or go to: www.ssa.gov/pgm/links_ssi.htm.
