Part I, Line 1a:

AARP board members, officers, and key employees are provided the benefit of first-class travel on flights exceeding 5 hours when business class accommodations are not available. Directors may also use first-class travel if prior approval is obtained from the Corporate Secretary's Office due to medical reasons or for especially late-night arrival, or if approved by the Board Chair. The AARP Chief Executive Officer is provided the benefit of first-class travel on flights exceeding 90 minutes due to the extensive travel requirements of the position.

In 2015, 4 board members used first-class travel. All directors for AARP serve on a volunteer basis and are not compensated for their generous commitment to AARP. The officers, directors, and key employees are, however, reimbursed by AARP for travel and subsistence costs incurred in carrying out their duties. In addition, directors are reimbursed for travel and subsistence costs incurred for spouses/companions accompanying them to Association functions. The board members receive a gross-up payment to ensure there are no out-of-pocket expenses related to the income taxes for the spouse/companion travel. All spouse/companion travel reimbursements and issues, including utility rates, caregiving, and work and save programs.

AARP also advances our policy agenda at the national level through advocacy that proactively addresses issues important to people 50+, including caregiving, health, saving and planning, Social Security, and age-based discrimination. Underlying our policy agenda is the in-depth research conducted by AARP, which also provides a foundation for our program development and for the information we provide on key issues affecting 50+ Americans, including, in addition to those listed above, livable communities, work and careers, and more.

To help people live purposeful and fulfilling lives, AARP offers Life Reimagined, a digital and live service that helps people reflect, evaluate priorities, and define next steps in work, relationships, and well-being. AARP offers training and education programs that help people 50+ improve their lives, such as AARP Driver Safety courses, technology education through the AARP TEK program, and local workshops and activities on matters such as preventing fraud.

AARP also facilitates the participation of 50+ Americans in bringing about positive social change in America. Initiatives include Create the Good, which connects individuals to a network of people, tools, and time-flexible volunteer opportunities; Andrus Awards for Community Service, which recognize people who have made a difference in their communities in ways that support AARP's mission, vision, and direction; and the work of AARP Chapters, which engage members in community service and fellowship.

AARP also communicates with members and non-members through its award-winning website, mobile apps, broadcast studio productions, social media, and various other platforms to provide information that is engaging, informative, and useful and to ensure that positive images of aging are reflected in society.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d, Other Program Services:

Member Acquisition's work is based on the recognition that members are an essential part of AARP's ability to achieve its mission. Speaking on behalf of its tens of millions of members gives AARP significant power and reach in advocating for social change at the local, state, and national levels. Members also provide grassroots activism,

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11:

The Form 990 is prepared and reviewed in AARP's internal tax department. The return is then put through a secondary review which includes the AARP Controller and AARP General Counsel. After this thorough review process, the Form 990 is distributed to the Board of Directors for their review. After all issues are addressed the return is reviewed by the Chief Operating Officer prior to electronically filing with the Internal Revenue Service.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

Annually, all board members and employees (including officers) are required to review the Code of Conduct, formally acknowledge their understanding of the Code, and disclose any real or potential conflicts of interest. Disclosures are reviewed by appropriate management (or in the case of a board member, the Board Chair, and if necessary, the Governance Committee), and the Ethics & Compliance Office. The appropriate resolution plan is implemented (for example, recusal from participating in any deliberations and decisions relevant to the disclosure). The Ethics & Compliance Office monitors compliance with these requirements and ensures proper follow-up as needed.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15a:

AARP considers relevant for-profit and not-for-profit data since this is the landscape in which AARP competes for talent. Establishing the appropriate compensation for positions and jobs considers external market pricing (where possible) from an independent, third party compensation consulting firm, internal criteria, and an individual's actual performance and contribution. Internal criteria is based on a standard approach that measures the internal value of positions, including: complexity and scope of responsibility, skill set and competencies, education and experience, and the reporting relationship of the position. An individual's actual performance and contribution is measured through AARP's performance management approach and then rewarded through AARP's annual base pay merit and incentive awards programs.

Name of the organization AARP	Employer identification number 95-1985500

For the CEO, information from all three areas (external data, internal data, individual performance and contribution) is submitted to the Board of Directors for review and approval. In some cases, the Board may deal directly with the independent, third party compensation consulting firm on external market pricing. The individual in this position may have legal representation and may insist on an employment contract with terms that are mutually agreed upon by the individual and the Board.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19:

AARP makes its Form 990 available on its website at www.aarp.org or upon request to the General Counsel's Office. AARP's audited financial statements and conflict of interest policy are also available on its website at www.aarp.org. AARP's Form 1024 will be made public upon request to AARP's Office of General Counsel. All other governing documents will be made available to the public in the event those documents are included in a filing with the Internal Revenue Service.

Part VII, Sec. A, Officers, Key Employees, and Highest Compensated Employee
AARP has a standard 40 hour work week and are the average hours disclosed on Form 990. Officers, key employees, and highest compensated employees often work in excess of that amount.

STATEMENT

AARP

EIN: 95-1985500

2015 AMENDED FORM 990

The 2015 AARP Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax, is being amended to properly categorize investment income and expenses that were originally reported as unrealized gain or loss. This Form 990 is also being amended because AARP inadvertently failed to include Forms 926, Return by a U.S. Transferor of Property to a Foreign Corporation, in its originally filed return.

AARP's failure to timely file Forms 926 was not due to any willful neglect, but was instead the result of an inadvertent oversight in the very complex area of tax issues related to overseas investments. Despite using ordinary care and prudence in preparing its returns, AARP was not initially aware that it was required as an exempt organization to file the disclosures even though the amounts are not taxable. AARP had diligently consulted with counsel on whether the amounts were taxable but was not aware of the filing requirement. As soon as AARP became aware of its filing requirement, it immediately began the process of having the disclosures prepared by outside tax experts. AARP strives to file complete and accurate.

AARP filed for an extension to file its 2015 Form 990. The extended due date is November 15, 2016 and AARP not only filed its original Form 990 prior to this date but also is filing the amended Form 990 and Forms 926 prior to the extended due date of November 15, 2016. Additionally, as noted, there is no additional tax owed by AARP, so there is no adverse tax consequence to the federal treasury. Moreover, the fact that this filing did not involve an under-reporting of tax further shows that AARP's mistake was inadvertent – AARP had no tax avoidance motive. Therefore, AARP should not be subject to penalties for this inadvertent mistake.

In summary, for all of the reasons stated above, AARP believes that reasonable cause exists for the late filing of the 2015 Forms 926, and that the untimely filing was not due to willful neglect.
