AARP Celebrates Year of the Monkey at Largest Lunar New Year Festival in Country

Get complimentary AARP prizes and photos at 35th Annual Asian American Expo

Saturday, January 16 – Sunday, January 17 at Pomona Fairplex

AARP wishes everyone a year filled with joy and discovery. May the Year of the Monkey set the stage for a future full of vibrant possibilities.

WASHINGTON, D.C., January 8, 2016 – AARP is commemorating the Year of the Monkey by returning to the 35th Annual Asian American Expo, the largest Lunar New Year event in the U.S. Expo attendees are invited to pose with their family and friends in AARP’s photo booth and take home a free picture in a special Year of the Monkey frame. Guests will also receive special complimentary Lunar New Year gifts and can enter for a chance to win an AARP RealPad, the first-of-its-kind easy to use tablet designed with pre-loaded helpful apps. The AARP booth is located in Hall 4 at the Pomona Fairplex in Pomona, CA on Saturday, January 16 and Sunday, January 17.

“At last year’s Expo, we met and shared with a wonderfully engaged crowd many of the issues and resources that AARP provides from caregiving to fraud prevention. Our AARP staff and volunteers are eager to share more AARP information with the 2016 Asian Expo attendees,” said Daphne Kwok, AARP Vice President of Multicultural Leadership for the Asian American and Pacific Islander Audience.

Organized by the Chinese Overseas Marketing Service Corporation, the Asian American Expo will feature more than 1,000 booths in six large exhibition halls, three unique Asian food courts, and live entertainment on eight performance stages.
