MILITARY CAREGIVING GUIDE

aarp.org/preparetocare

Caring for a wounded, ill, or injured service member or veteran may be one of the most challenging roles you will ever tackle, but it could also be one of the most rewarding. In this guide you'll find information, a glossary of terms to know, resources (identified with an asterisk and listed throughout the guide), and checklists to help you find and organize the support you might need. The guide addresses five key issues that family caregivers face.

AARP® AUTO INSURANCE PROGRAM FROM THE HARTFORD

888-277-6436

Savings and benefits designed to reward members for being safer, more experienced drivers. The program offers a lifetime renewability benefit in most states—coverage will be renewed each year as long as you meet a few simple requirements. No-cost, no-obligation quotes are available. Added savings if you bundle your home and auto policies.

If you are age 50 or older, once you're insured through this program for at least 60 days, you cannot be refused renewal as long as applicable premiums are paid when due. Also, you and other customary drivers of your vehicles must retain valid licenses, remain physically and mentally capable of operating an automobile, have no convictions for driving while intoxicated, and must not have obtained your policy through material misrepresentation. Benefit currently not available in HI, MI, NC, NH, and TX.

AARP® HOMEOWNERS INSURANCE PROGRAM FROM THE HARTFORD

800-909-5191

Coverage available for those who own a house or condo or who rent. Added savings if you bundle your home and auto policies.

AARP® MEDICARE ADVANTAGE FROM UNITEDHEALTHCARE

800-643-4845

Medicare Advantage plans combine Part A (hospital coverage) and Part B (doctor coverage), and often prescription drug coverage, into a single plan. Plus, these plans offer additional benefits not covered by Original Medicare. Coverage and costs vary by plan. You do not need to be an AARP member to enroll.

Medicare plans are insured through UnitedHealthcare Insurance Company or one of its affiliated companies. For Medicare Advantage and Prescription Drug Plans: A Medicare Advantage organization with a Medicare contract and a Medicare-approved Part D sponsor. Enrollment in the plan depends on the plan's contract renewal with Medicare. You do not need to be an AARP member to enroll. AARP encourages you to consider your needs when selecting products and does not make specific product recommendations for individuals.
