Part IV, line 2b:

The client escrow account is an account used for purposes of making deposits of money from or for clients where the matter is pending but not resolved. A typical example might be a client who is in a dispute with the mortgage holder concerning amount due. Until the exact dollar amount is agreed to on settling the case, the money will remain in our client escrow and ultimately paid out in accordance with the terms of the settlement.

LCE handles a number of consumer matters and in the context of some of those cases, the LCE staff or pro bono attorney may negotiate/advocate for a client to have a particular debt reduced, eliminated or to have a payment plan set up with the creditor.

Part V, line 4:

LCE's board designated quasi-endowment was established from funds received by LCE as a recipient of certain unclaimed monies from a settlement of a class action lawsuit against a Washington, DC cable company. The funds are invested in a broad-based portfolio covering multiple asset classes. LCE uses the income derived from these funds as needed to support consumer protection activities of the elderly. LCE's Board of Directors approves the appropriation for spending based on an annual budget. The value at December 31, 2014 is $3,764,285.

LCE has a quasi-endowment to fund the expenses associated with employing a law student as a part-time law clerk to support LCE cases. The funds are invested in a broad-based portfolio covering multiple asset classes. Spending from this endowment will commence when the endowment corpus has grown to a level sufficient to generate adequate income to support the goals of the program, a level to be determined by LCE's Board of Directors. The value at December 31, 2014 is $347,120.

Part X, Line 2:

LCE is required to record a liability for any material tax position taken which does not meet the minimum thresholds of "more likely than not" to be successful under regulatory challenge. No provision for income taxes has been recorded in 2014 and 2013 since management believes there is no material unrelated business income or material uncertain tax positions requiring the recognition of a liability.
