Ms. Jennifer Berdugo
Associate State Director AARP
1415 L Street, Suite 960

Dear Ms. Berdugo,

Please accept this letter as the City of Roseville's application to join AARP. The City of Roseville has a robust older adult population and it continues to grow. This is a great time for the City to join AARP and foster a partnership focused on creating great livable communities for people of all ages.

In addition to the application to join AARP, this letter includes a request to accept the City of Roseville's WHO Age-Friendly Cities 5 Year Follow-Up Report. In 2012, Roseville City Council approved the report that was submitted to show the World Health Organization (WHO) that the City was committing to the WHO Age-Friendly Cities Network cycle of continual improvement. The report/application was accepted by WHO and the City of Roseville was named an Age-Friendly City.

Over the past five years, as the City has continued to grow, City Council and staff have remained engaged with the 50+ community and worked to plan for an increased aging population. This will, of course, benefit all Roseville residents and visitors.

The City of Roseville understands the planning, implementation, evaluating and continual improvement process laid out by the WHO Age-Friendly Cities Network. It is also with great pride that I commend the City of Roseville's Senior Commission for remaining engaged with the WHO Age-Friendly Cities Network and taking the lead role with this initiative now during the update period, and in the future.

Thank you for the opportunity to continue to be a part of this dynamic and global network.

Sincerely,
