The population of America’s small towns and rural communities is aging at a faster rate than the nation’s population as a whole. The data, observations and examples contained within this 56-page, photo- and fact-filled report can inform elected officials and other community leaders about the needs, benefits, challenges and solutions found in rural places. (D20514)

LEARN MORE: AARP.org/RuralLivability

HOW TO ORDER
E-mail Livable@AARP.org and provide:
- Your Name
- Mailing Address
- The title(s) and D-number(s) of the publication(s) you’re requesting
AARP will mail one copy of each title ordered. Allow up to four weeks for delivery. Bulk orders will be considered. Please explain the reason for requesting multiple copies.

STAY INFORMED
Learn when AARP Livable Communities releases more publications. Sign up for the free, weekly, award-winning AARP Livable Communities e-Newsletter at AARP.org/LivableSubscribe.

LEARN MORE
Visit the Publications and Resources page at AARP.org/Livable for links to our downloadable and online-only publications and collections.

QUESTIONS?
Email us at Livable@AARP.org

The Pop-Up Placemaking Tool Kit
Seeing potential solutions is more effective than simply reading, hearing or talking about them. This “recipe” filled publication, created with the placemaking firm Team Better Block, is a practical guide to demonstrating and implementing positive change. (D20504)

LEARN MORE: AARP.org/Livable-PopUp

The ABCs of ADUs
This 20-page introductory guide explains what accessory dwelling units are and how they expand housing options for people of all ages. (D20473)

For a deeper dive into ADUs and the local policies and zoning codes that allow them, read Accessory Dwelling Units: A Step by Step Guide to Design and Development, a 113-page resource from the AARP Public Policy Institute. (D20481)

LEARN MORE: AARP.org/ADUs

AARP Rural Livability Workshop Report
The population of America’s small towns and rural communities is aging at a faster rate than the nation’s population as a whole. The data, observations and examples contained within this 56-page, photo- and fact-filled report can inform elected officials and other community leaders about the needs, benefits, challenges and solutions found in rural places. (D20514)

LEARN MORE: AARP.org/RuralLivability

Making Room: Housing for a Changing America
Featuring infographics, solutions, floor plans and photographs from the National Building Museum, this 84-page publication is a rallying cry for a wider menu of housing options. (D20459)

LEARN MORE: AARP.org/MakingRoom

Continued
AARP LIVABLE COMMUNITIES PUBLICATIONS

AARP Roadmap to Livability Collection
Created for both experienced leaders and volunteers who are new to livability efforts, the collection’s six publications contain worksheets and strategies for making a community great for people of all ages.
1. Roadmap to Livability (D20361)
2. Community Listening Session Tool Kit (D20362)
3. Housing Workbook (D20363)
4. Transportation Workbook (D20364)
5. Health Services and Community Supports Workbook (D20365)
6. Economic Development Workbook (D20366)
LEARN MORE: AARP.org/LivabilityRoadmap

AARP HomeFit Guide
Featuring more than 100 smart ways to make a home comfortable, safe and a great fit for older adults — and people of all ages. The tips and suggestions in this room-by-room guide are doable regardless of housing type (single-family house, apartment, mobile home, etc.) or ownership status (owner, renter). (D18959)
LEARN MORE: AARP.org/HomeFit

Where We Live: Communities for All Ages
Added together, these three publications feature more than 300 inspiring examples from America’s local leaders.
2018 Edition (D20439) | 2017 Edition (D20336)
2016 Edition (D20258) | LEARN MORE: AARP.org/WhereWeLive

AARP Walk Audit Tool Kit (and Leader Guide)
Using one or both publications, a resident, group or local leader can survey and report on the safety and walkability of a street, intersection or neighborhood. (D20381 and D20382)
LEARN MORE and download the single-sheet, printable, self-service worksheets: AARP.org/WalkAudit

AARP Network of Age-Friendly States and Communities
This digest-sized booklet provides an introduction to the network and explains how a community can join it. (D19860)
LEARN MORE: AARP.org/AgeFriendly

Engaging the Community to Create Community
Published by AARP and Cities of Service, this guide features examples of how mayors and residents have worked together to improve their communities. (D20461)
LEARN MORE: AARP.org/CommunityEngagement

Creating Parks and Public Spaces for People of All Ages
Produced by AARP, 880 Cities and The Trust for Public Land, this step-by-step guide shows how local leaders and community groups can develop fun, safe and healthy outdoor places. (D20447)
LEARN MORE: AARP.org/LivableParks

Like us on Facebook: @AARPLivableCommunities | Follow us on Twitter: @AARPLivable

Catalog as of September 2020