62% have seen or experienced age discrimination at work.

Of the 62% who said they would report it, their four top-of-mind choices where to turn are...

- 39% HR department
- 26% Supervisor/manager
- 11% A union
- 9% Oregon Bureau of Labor & Industries

31% have gone on a job interview in the past two years. Of those, 33% were asked for age-related information in the interview.

66% support a law in Oregon prohibiting employers from asking for age-related dates on a job application.

82% support stronger age discrimination laws for Oregon.

Contacts: Rebecca Perron, AARP Research, RPerron@aarp.org
Media inquiries: Joyce DeMonnin, JDemonnin@aarp.org