TWO IN FIVE (42%) Oklahoma adults use the Internet to meet potential dates and/or romantic partners — and more than HALF (56%) have experienced at least one red flag from a love interest they met online (e.g., being asked to send money).

SEVENTY PERCENT of Oklahoma adults are not familiar with Census scams. This makes them particularly vulnerable, as Census scams are expected to rise substantially given that the Decennial Census is this year.