

2014 NEWPORT, VT LIVABILITY REPORT

Town Information

LARGEST UNMET NEED

-73.4%

COMMUNITY INFORMATION DELIVERED IN PERSON

91.8% say it is important to have community information that is delivered in person to people who may have difficulty or may not be able to leave their home. Only 18.4% say this is present in their community; resulting in a gap of 73.4%.

INFORMATION SOURCES

*AAA 91%

FAMILY AND FRIENDS 86%

AARP 70%

The top 3 sources Newport residents age 45-plus say they would turn to for information on older adult services are the *Area Agency on Aging, family and friends, and AARP.

MOST IMPORTANT FEATURE

Access to information in one central source is the most important feature (72%) to Newport residents age 45-plus.

LARGEST MET NEED

The lowest unmet need is free access to computers and the Internet in public places such as the library, senior centers or government buildings. 91.3% say it is important to have this feature in the community. 85.9% say this is present in their community; resulting in a small gap of 5.4%.