Concerns about the coronavirus pandemic

Residents aged 50 and over in Jefferson County, Kentucky are concerned about the coronavirus pandemic and are taking positive steps to avoid infection.

A LARGE MAJORITY OF OLDER RESIDENTS OF JEFFERSON COUNTY ARE CONCERNED ABOUT THE CORONAVIRUS

- 26% are somewhat concerned
- 60% are very concerned

WORRY THAT THEY OR A FAMILY MEMBER

- 73% will contract the virus
- 63% will die from the virus

WORRY THAT A PRE-EXISTING CONDITION WILL PUT THEM AT GREATER RISK

- 58%

WORRY THAT A VACCINE WILL NOT

- 55% be found in the next year
- 61% be safe [due to the rush]

THINGS RESIDENTS ARE DOING TO AVOID CONTRACTING THE VIRUS

- 92% washing hands more often
- 73% sheltering at home
- 53% canceling travel plans
- 96% wearing a face mask
- 53% working from home (among those employed)
- 54% canceling plans to attend a large family gathering