

Utility Survey of Vermont Residents Age 35-Plus

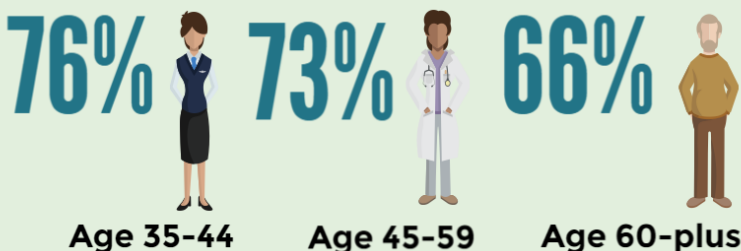

Vermont Residents Support Having an Independent Ratepayer Advocate

71% of residents support an independent ratepayer advocate to represent their best interests

How strongly do you support or oppose an independent ratepayer advocate?

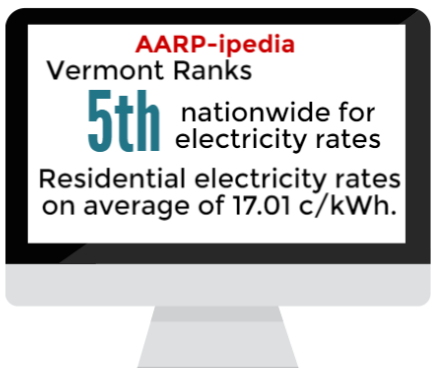

There is support for an independent ratepayer advocate across the age groups

Vermont Residents Are Concerned About Utilities

Almost 1-in-2

Residents in Vermont say they do not believe their interests are being considered when rates are increased

3-in-4

AARP Vermont Members say they are concerned about affording the cost of utilities

