A Path to Livability: A Citizen Survey of Burlington, Vermont

Favor the City of Burlington changing the zoning laws
so that additional housing units for moderate to low-income residents can be built in vacant lots or spaces around the city

Remain in own Home
93% would like to remain in their own home for as long as possible

Stay in the community
92% would like to remain in their neighborhood for as long as possible

Concerned about:

$ High cost of living (79%)

Car Being able to continue to drive (65%)

% Being able to pay for home repairs (56%)

Place Being able to get where I want to go (56%)

Sweep Getting help with home chores (56%)

Home meeting physical needs as I grow older (53%)

Hand Ability to pay utility bills in coming years (52%)

Community Rating
79%
rate their community as a good to excellent place for people to live as they age

SOURCE: The Path to Livability – A Citizen Survey of Burlington, Vermont
CONTACT: Joanne Binette, AARP Research, JBinette@aarp.org