In Connecticut, Hispanics are the largest multicultural group, representing 16% of the population followed by 11% African American/Black and 5% Asian American & Pacific Islanders. Among people age 50-plus, Hispanic and African American shares are equally sized (8% each) and Asians represent 3%.

The Southwest (Greater Bridgeport) region has the largest representation of Hispanic/Latino, African American/Black and Asian among its 50-plus population. African American/Black residents are the largest multicultural group in the North Central and South Central regions, concentrated around the Hartford and New Haven metropolitan areas.