

NEW YORK LIKELY VOTERS AGES 18-PLUS

Prescription Drug Costs in New York State

Most likely voters in New York state express concern that they may not be able to afford the cost of prescription medications that may be needed in the next few years. More information is needed about a proposed wholesale prescription drug program in the state.

More than

6 IN 10 (62%)

likely voters in New York are very or somewhat concerned about being able to afford prescription medications in the future, with women more likely than men to say so (69% vs. 54%).

Concern about affording needed medications is high across racial and ethnic groups:

75%

Black

68%

Latino

58%

White

It is also high across political ideologies:

62%

Conservative

62%

Liberal

60%

Moderate

Support is high for a proposed wholesale prescription drug program in the state.

Likely voters who know about the program support it by a 5 to 1 margin.

47%

Support

9%

Oppose

